Cllr. M Head advised about the Renewable Energy grants and will liaise with the Clerk.

POST MEETING NOTE:- The grants facility has now stopped.

5. Magna House – The Clerk has tried to contact the owners by email and by telephone, but no response was received. Cllr. E Coulson will email in order to achieve good working relationships.

ACTION:- EC

6. Waste bin installation – The Clerk has purchased a red waste bin and liaised with NKDC who installed it and will maintain the emptying of the bin. A new sign 'Rights of Way' has also been erected. It is hoped this will deter vehicles using the path and reduction of rubbish.

7. Speedwatch – Following discussion it was noted that more volunteers are needed to form a team. The contact is Dave Mitchell for updated training. Cllr. M Head and his wife volunteered their support.

8. Pedestrian Crossing Main Road Anwick Result – Following on from a recent traffic survey undertaken by Lincolnshire County Council, the results were very disappointing as hardly any people cross the road where the survey took place. It was suggested to request another survey in the autumn/spring at the site where people actually cross the road. The Clerk to send a copy of the survey to Cllr. A Key who will bring this up with the Highways Manager.
