4. Request from resident for a streetlight between Moy Park and the Chapel Main Street Anwick – Following discussion it was felt this issue to be revisited at a later date. However, as and when the Moy Park Liaison meetings restart it can be raised then.
5. Queen's Jubilee Celebration – 'Picnic in the Park' 4th June 2022.
Residents L Artley and D Adamic shared the amount of raffle prizes they had received and support from various companies. The Clerk to provide banking details to S Padley in order that donations can be made £150 to the church and £150 to the Community Centre. Details of Public Liability Insurance had been obtained and it was PROPOSED by Cllr. L Curtis and SECONDED by Cllr. E Coulson that the Parish Council pay for this insurance at a cost of not more than £67.00.
It was also confirmed that insurance will be covered by the suppliers of the equipment and that two First aiders need to be identified on the day.

6. Anwick Community Centre update – Use of the Community Centre has been increased slightly.
Also Magna House may be looking at using the Centre three days a month, which would produce a steady income.
7. Completion of River Lane road re-surfacing – This has now been completed and extended to include the front of the Community Centre, which was recognised as a big improvement to the outside. It was noted that the waste drain will need a layer of bricks and bay markings painted to the front of the Community Centre.
8. Charitable Status requirements – The Clerk had made enquiries and it would appear that if the Community Centre was to be set up as a charitable status, then an income of at least £5,000 per year is one of the requirements. On that basis the Community Centre would not qualify.
9. Plant Visit to Sleaford Renewable Energy Plant update - The Clerk had already submitted her notes in respect of the visit and she attended a briefing meeting on Wednesday 29th March 2022, in order to provide additional information when applying for a bid which comprise of £1,000 and £5,000. After the meeting an escorted trip was provided around the energy plant. The dates for submitting applications are 10.8., 14.12. and 12.04.2023. The Clerk and Cllr. L Curtis to look at submitting an application.
